One day a teacher from idearsquos sagayan special education program came and visited with Josephine and told her of all that was available for her daughter.

Since the doctor couldn’t give me a steroid cream at that time I had to find other ways to calm it.