When a dog is in extreme pain and refuses to allow the examination, he must sometimes be completed under sedation or anesthesia.